Report on LMS Online Assessment Tools
A.Y. 2021-22

Oriental College of Education organized LMS online Assessment Tools for the B.Ed. student teachers. LMS online assessment tools showcased their transformative impact on education within our institution. The initiative highlighted the use of platforms like Moodle and Canvas to create dynamic and interactive assessments. Participants, including faculty and staff, engaged in hands-on sessions where they learned to design diverse question types, integrate multimedia elements, and utilize automated grading features. The program emphasized the benefits of immediate feedback, personalized learning experiences through adaptive assessments, and robust data analytics for monitoring student performance. Overall, the initiative successfully demonstrated how LMS tools can enhance the effectiveness, efficiency, and engagement of the assessment process in educational settings.

LMS is the important tool which is used for our new generation learning and teaching process. The session was interesting and students gain knowledge about LMS tools.

The "E-Learn Pro: Digital Content Mastery" program was recently conducted at our OCE B.Ed. college with the aim of equipping future educators with the skills necessary to create high-quality digital educational content. The session was conducted by our esteemed Alumni Ms. Manpreet Saini. This report provides an overview of the program, its objectives, activities, and outcomes.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the "E-Learn Pro: Digital Content Mastery" program were:

1. To familiarize participants with the principles of effective e-learning content development.
2. To provide hands-on experience with various digital tools and platforms.

Principal
Oriental College of Education
Sanpada, Navi Mumbai.

E- Learning Pro : Digital Content Mastery

3. To enhance the technical skills required for creating interactive and engaging e-learning modules.
4. To encourage innovative teaching methods through digital content.

Program Structure

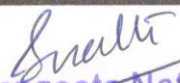

The program was structured into several key modules, each focusing on different aspects of digital content development:

1. Introduction to E-Learning: Ma'am has covered the basics of e-learning, its importance, and current trends in educational technology.
2. Content Planning and Design: Student Teachers learned about instructional design principles, curriculum planning for e-learning, and storyboarding techniques.
3. Digital Tools and Software: Hands-on sessions were conducted to familiarize participants with tools like Canva for creating multimedia content.
4. Creating Interactive Content: Ma'am has focused on developing interactive quizzes, simulations, and games to enhance learner engagement.
5. Assessment and Feedback: Methods for creating effective assessments, quizzes, and surveys were discussed, along with strategies for providing constructive feedback.
6. Publishing and Sharing Content: Guidance on the best practices for publishing e-learning content on various platforms, and strategies for promoting content to reach a wider audience.

Outcomes

The "E-Learn Pro: Digital Content Mastery" program achieved significant outcomes:

1. Enhanced Skills: Students developed strong skills in digital content creation, enabling them to design and implement engaging e-learning modules.
2. Innovative Teaching Methods: The program encouraged the adoption of innovative teaching techniques, leveraging digital tools to enhance the learning experience.

Report on Creating a Google form A.Y. 2022-23

A recent workshop was organised for student teachers on Creating Google form by Ms. Asmita Wewhare on 19.11.2022. It was conducted to empower educators with the skills to design effective online surveys and assessments. The session began with a detailed introduction to Google Forms, highlighting its user-friendly interface and versatile features. Participants were guided through the process of setting up a new form, adding various question types such as multiple-choice, short answer, and checkboxes, and customizing the form with images and videos to enhance engagement. The workshop emphasized practical applications, showing how Google Forms can be used for quizzes, feedback forms, and registration purposes, making it a valuable tool for both classroom and administrative tasks.

how Google Classroom can streamline classroom management and foster a more organized learning environment.

In the latter part of the training, the focus shifted to the interactive features of Google Classroom, such as facilitating class discussions through the Stream, providing timely feedback on student work, and utilizing the Gradebook to track progress. Attendees were also introduced to various add-ons and extensions that can enhance the functionality of Google Classroom, such as integrating third-party educational apps and tools. The hands-on approach of the training ensured that participants could immediately apply their new skills, resulting in a high level of engagement and enthusiasm. Feedback from educators was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing confidence in their ability to use Google Classroom to create a more efficient, interactive, and collaborative learning experience for their students.
